Suspension.

PHILADELPHIA, October 22.—Mr. Walter P. Baker, of 1,619 Market street, who on the 5th of September received a letter from Nelse Booth saying that the latter assisted in the abduction, and knew of the whereabouts of Charley Ross, and urging Baker to use the knowledge thus given him in restoring the child, the particulars of which have been published, received the following letter in Nelse Booth's handwriting on the 8th instant. The letter was mailed in Philadelphia on the 8th, and the New York date is evidently a blind:

New York October 9.—Baker, you are a d—n fool and Ross is crazy now you are in danger; I thought you had more than a chance of getting the boy. What made you give it away? You must now do as I say, or I will go to you sure. For God's sake don't say anything to any one now, but work for me. I want you now to find Gusto, and then I will ensure you the boy. If you go to Bradford, England, and make a few inquiries, you can find him easy. You must be quiet about it. When you find him, which is very easy to do, I will have it fixed, for I will manage to get him a letter, and if I don't you go as I say and show him this—this winter he will be about there or York. I know this, you must keep it secret and everybody else. Hear is the secret Gusto English name is sam herbert and by this name you will find him if he sees this I think it will be all right tell him this the child was given to New York is Charley Ross and the boy who Charley Ross is for he don't know I ought to tell you for you have been trying your best to nab me. So as I say dam you and stop your hunting for me. I want Gusto to have his boy you leave next week and you can succeede thake this with you and don't shew it to a living soul but Gusto or Herbet if you do I will murder you so beware Baker from you know who.

Mr. Baker then published the following personal in the Ledger of the 12th inst:

BOSTON:—Send me an order on Hurbot to deliver to me. I will go. B.

The personal brought out the following letter, also using the order for the boy, which Mr. Baker received on the 14th. The boy was born at a two-cent stamp, and was postmarked Philadelphia. The letter was on one small piece of paper, evidently out of an account book, and was as follows:

CALIFORNIA.

Relief for Virginia City.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 27.—Wells, Fargo & Co. have sent one thousand dollars to Virginia City, and ordered their agents forward with supplies from all points free. The Board brokers have sent five thousand dollars. Insurance on the burned district will reach a million of dollars. A rough estimate places the loss at $2,000,000. No loss of life is reported.

WASHINGTON.

Freedman's Bank—Report, &c.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—Creswell, President of the Freedmen's Savings Bank Commission, has signed 30,000 checks intended for the payment of 20 per cent to depositors on Nov. 1st, report of the Agricultural Department for October, represents the wheat crop of the present year a short one.

The President has issued his proclamation naming Thursday, Nov. 25th, Thanksgiving Day.

NEW YORK.

Board of Missions—Judgment.

New York, Oct. 27.—The Board of Missions of the Protestant Episcopal Church received its judgment to day. A resolution was adopted extending the thanks of the Board to Rev. Dr. Scherzer-Schuyler, for the past fifteen years missionary to China. For his services in translating the Scripture's into the Chinese language, the committee on mission offerings, deposited last year, reported through Bishop Howe, of Central Pa., that in their judgment need of a more thorough enlightenment of the people in the great missionary work was becoming more apparent every year.

The U. S. Trust Company, in which was deposited certain funds belonging to the estate of the late County Auditor Watson, was to-day ordered by the Surrogate to pay into the State Treasury $39,435.94, being the full amount of a judgment obtained by the people against Watson, on of the Ring robbers.

John D. Jay, the murderer of Mr. J. H. Noe, has been found guilty and sentenced to be hung on Dec. 10.

ENGLAND.

Servia—Insurrection.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—Screw sloop of war, Albion, has been ordered to Panama to protect British interests.

The Standard says: "The Servian Skupelina voted 61 to 42 on motion of the government to send the army to the country near three years ago, and travelled from New York to Savannah in a wagon and two horses, and accompanied by a wagon and several children."

He was traced to New York again, in October, 1874, he left the country in a steamship. Mr. Baker has been trying to find Nelse Booth in Philadelphia, and has traced him to a house in Acorn Alley, below Spruce, between Seventh and Eighth. The police are aware of his habits, but he has not yet been arrested.

Joseph Ross, Mr. Ross' brother, traced the man known as "Gusto," and found that such a man came to this country nearly three years ago, and travelled from New York to Savannah in a wagon and two horses, and accompanied by a wagon and several children."

Mr. Baker's friends in this city, entirely independent of Mr. Ross or the authorities, have furnished the money to pay his expenses to Europe, and he is to leave New York, in a Cunard steamer, at noon to-morrow, for Liverpool. He has relatives in Philadelphia, of the highest respectability, one of his uncles being a member of the wholesale drug firm of Bullock & Crenshaw, another uncle a wholesale dry goods dealer, and a third the secretary of an iron company.

Obstinacy and the Result.

Henry Williams, a negro who was sentenced by the Mayor on the 18th inst, to thirty days labor on the streets, refused on Tuesday to work any longer and quietly sat down on the sidewalk to watch his brother felons handle the shovel. Yesterday morning the Mayor ordered Williams brought into the court room. After delivering him a lecture on his obstinacy, he added thirty days time to his sentence, and cautioned him that every time in the future he refused to obey the orders of the superintendent of the street force, that he would add thirty days for the offence.

roduced affidavits made by W. P. Canady Esq., and Capt. L. B. Grainger, in reply to the affidavit of Mr. Marten. A long discussion arose upon the admissibility of the affidavits, and the counsel asked leave, which was granted to file an exception to the ruling of the Court. The question for the inquiry of the Court on motion to dissolve the injunction were agreed upon and the case upon the main issue presented to trial. Maj. C. M. Stedman, counsel for defendant, delivered the opening arguments, which was quite lengthy and touched upon all the points in controversy. At the conclusion of Maj. Stedman's argument, the counsel agreed owing to the quantity of criminal business yet to be transacted, by the Court to file briefs comprising the balance of the arguments for the decision of His Honor. The Court then adjourned.
